

WINNERS
CMEA BURSARY PROGRAM 2009

The Canadian Military Engineers Association is pleased to announce the following winners of the CMEA Bursary program 2009:

Spr Ekaterina Kostukevich is a member of 32 CER, Toronto and is currently in her third year in Chemical Engineering at University of Waterloo, ON.

Tammi Polson is the wife of Sgt C.S. Polson and is currently in her second year in Nursing Program (RN) at North Island College, Courtenay, BC.

Kimberley Evoy is the daughter of Maj T.M. Evoy and is currently in her first year in Forensic science at Trent University, Peterborough, ON.

These three successful applicants will be presented a cheque for $1000 towards their post-secondary academic program.

Applications were evaluated on a number of criteria including academic achievement, financial need, expressed future ambitions, and community involvement. Policy guidelines and rules for eligibility can be found at: http://cmea-agmc.ca/about_bursary_e.asp

The call for applications for the 2010 program will be going out next summer by e-mail. All members of the CMEA are encouraged to take advantage of this opportunity to assist worthy individuals in the pursuit of their post-secondary education.

CHIMO!
